Waxing Gibbous 78% · Full moon Jul 19 · Fall Eq. in 78d

ON THIS DAY — 2016: The FDA approves the first artificial pancreas device for type 1 diabetes.

WEATHER — OKC

78°F / 61°F · Partly cloudy, 20% chance of afternoon storms. Wind SSW 12mph. Feels like a good porch-coffee morning.

UV index 6 (moderate) · Air quality: Good (AQI 32)

Primoscapes note: soil's dry enough for prep work before the afternoon storms roll in — get the chop-and-drop done early.

FIELD NOTES

Redbud trees, common in OKC yards, fix nitrogen in the soil around them — old farmers planted them as a free signal that the ground underneath was good for a garden.

NURSERY NOTES

White noise works on babies because the womb was loud — closer to a running vacuum than a lullaby. Quiet isn't naturally soothing to a newborn; it's a preference they learn later.

VOCABULARY EXPANSION

Eucatastrophe · noun

A sudden turn toward good that rescues a story from ruin — coined by J.R.R. Tolkien for the moment hope breaks through.
